Your position as a volunteer depends upon your skill set. Wherever you are most experienced is where you would be most beneficial to the program however there may be opportunities to learn new skills when volunteering. This may also include getting your hands dirty by helping out around the farm, or performing other tasks. The daily operations of our various projects would not be possible without you, the volunteer.

On behalf of all our rescues, we thank you for your help!

Please email your completed application to kindredfarm@xplornet.com
